- Centre applied for the wrong post-results service/for the wrong examination paper for a candidate
- Centre missed awarding body deadline to apply for a post-results service
- Centre applied for a post-results service for a candidate without gaining required candidate consent/permission

Complaints and appeals procedure

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, (The Centre) encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by Not Applicable.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- A complaint should be submitted in writing by completing a complaints and appeals form.
- Forms are available from site reception.
- Completed forms should be returned to the reception.
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 30 calendar days.

How a formal complaint is investigated

1. The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

2. The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 4 working weeks.

Appeals

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

- Any appeal must be submitted in writing by again completing a complaints and appeals form.
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 5 working days.
- The appeal will be referred to the Chair of Governors (or a special Committee of the Governing body) for consideration.
- The Chair of Governors (or Committee) will inform the appellant of the final conclusion in due course.
